Terms and Conditions

1a. Beginner course includes 10 hours Automatic or 12 hours Manual transmission plus 20 hours in class, a Ministry Approved Insurance Discount Certificate, and a G1 exit road test. Please confirm price of course by phoning our office.

1b. Payment for course is to be made in advance when signing the Registration form unless circumstances warrant other arrangements which have been approved by A Formula 1 Driving School administration. We are happy to accept either: cash, check or money orders. Checks which are returned NSF are subject to a $25.00 administrative replacement charge in addition to providing us with a certified check or Money Order.

2. In the event a student has reasonable ground to interrupt the course, the student must complete the entire course (in-car and in-class) within 6 months of course commencement. A student may not delay either an in-car or an in-class lesson for more than 1 month apart. A delay of more than 1 month will result in the cancellation of this contract. A student will then be obligated to pay for the remainder of the course in accordance with A Formula 1 Driving School current quoted rates. Any special course price offered for previous course will not apply.

3. Should a student withdraw from the course after the first lesson (either in-car or in-class) such notice is to be submitted in writing. Registration monies will be deducted $75.00 per in-class session and $75.00 per in-car lesson from the refund.

4. Course registration includes: One G1 exit (G2) Road Test. A warm-up training lesson for the test and the car is provided. If an additional road test is required it must be paid for in advance $145.00, to A Formula 1, plus the $40.00 retest Drivetest fee. There is an additional fee for the G highway test which a student must qualify for 1 year after obtaining their G2 license.
